ecoer

EEV Kit Installation Guide

Make your home Green & Smart

Danger!

Turn off the system's power and wait until it is fully powered down before proceeding with this installation.
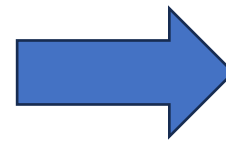

EEV Kit

CN13 OUT

CN3

CN3 line

CN13 IN

Making your home Green & Smart

Installation Guidance

Step 1: Remove the outdoor unit's electric control box cover and use a screwdriver to remove the black protective cover on the motherboard.
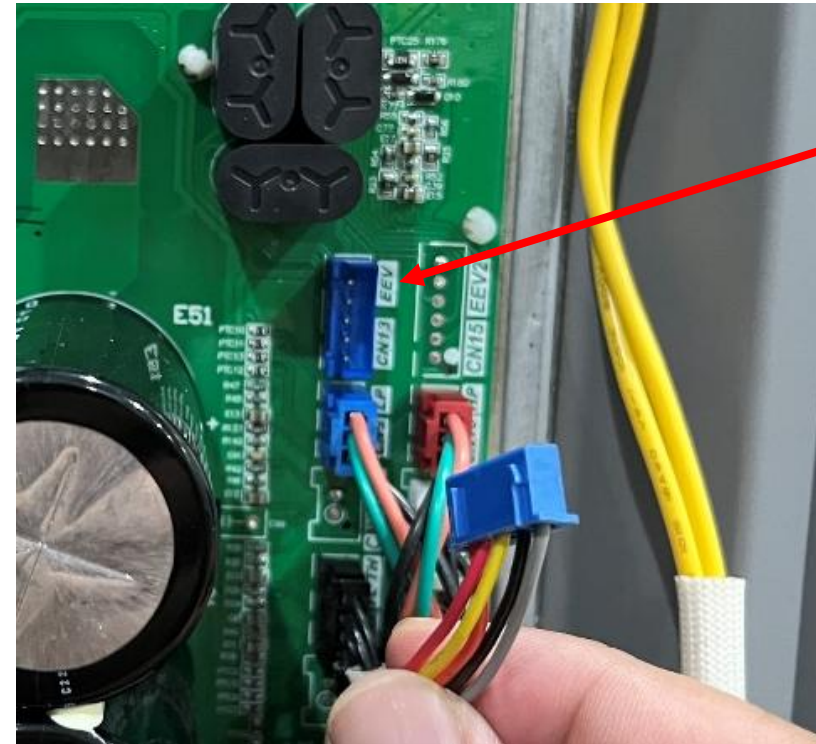

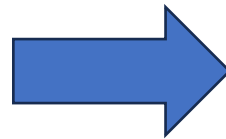

Black protective cover

Installation Guidance

Step 2: Find the EEV interface CN13 on the board, and then unplug the EEV line from mainboard.

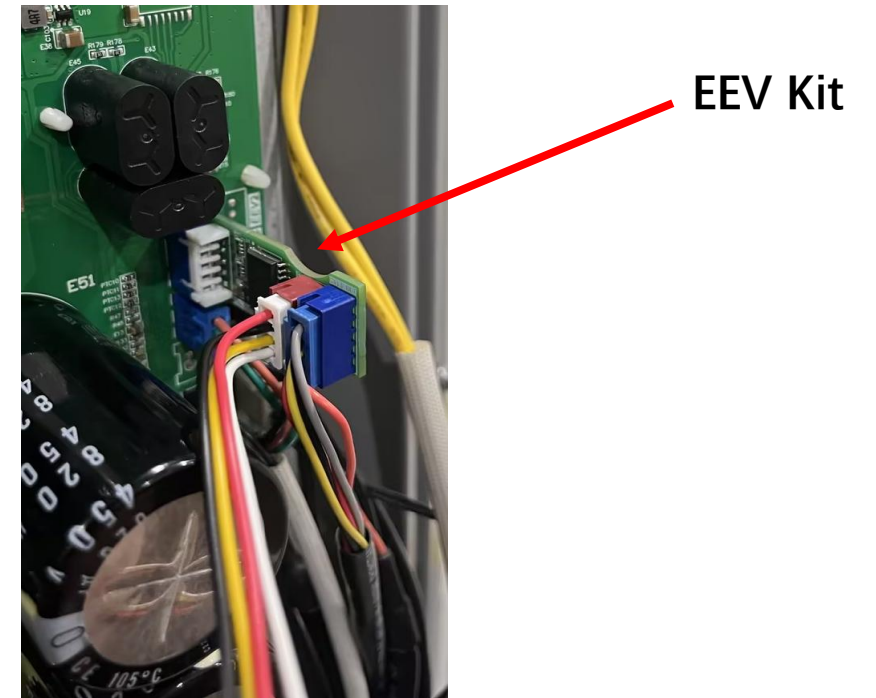

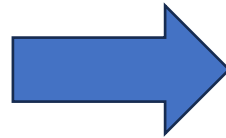

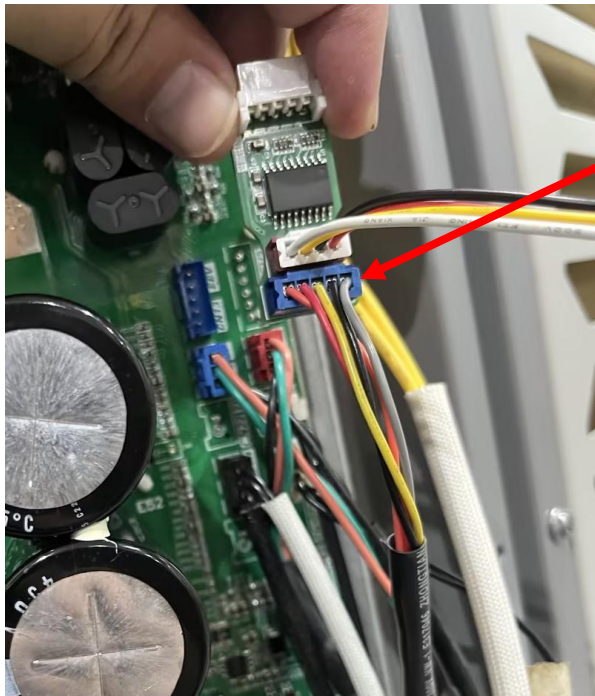

EEV line connection

Unplug the EEV line from mainboard

Installation Guidance

Step 3: Connect the unplugged EEV line to the EEV Kit CN13 OUT port, and then insert the EEV Kit into the original EEV Interface on the mainboard.
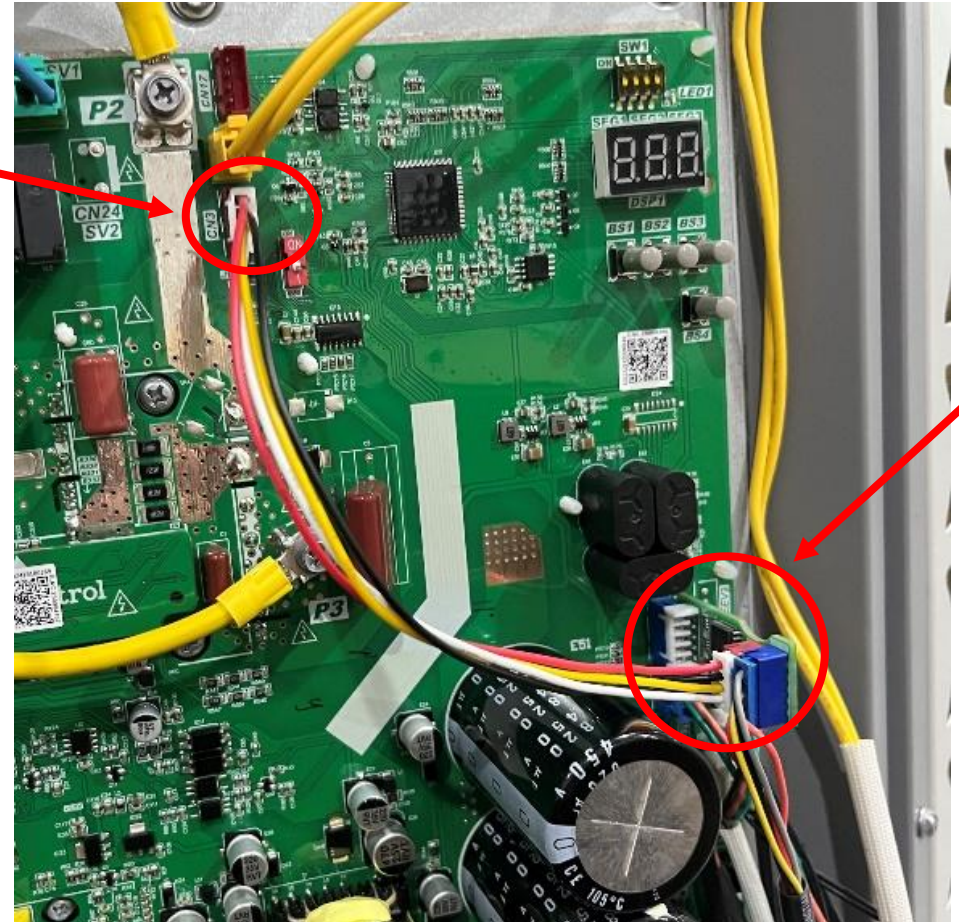

EEV Kit

Installation Guidance

Step 4: Connect the CN3 line from the EEV Kit to the CN3 interface on the mainboard, and the entire installation process is successfully completed.

Step 5: When installation is complete, reinstall the black protective cover.

CN3 Interface
On the mainboard

EEV Kit

Notice:

During the installation process, the power supply must be disconnected before installation operations can be performed. Pay attention to electrical safety.